

Negro on Trial for Rape of White Woman

The trial of John D. Patrick, 28-year-old Negro, charged with rape of an elderly white woman, got underway in Hempstead Circuit Court this morning with Judge Lyle Brown presiding.

The 72-year-old white woman was raped and brutally beaten at her home in the early morning hours of July 2, 1961. She lived alone. City, County and State officers teamed in the investigation and within 24 hours had arrested and charged Patrick with the rape attack.

Officers said their investigation revealed another rape-beating of a local Negro woman earlier in 1961. The woman told officers she was attacked by Patrick.

A jury was being selected to try the case Monday morning.

Indonesians Land in Dutch New Guinea

By PETER ARNETT

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP) — Defense Minister Gen. Abdul Harris Nasution reported today that Indonesian guerrillas have landed at three places along the West New Guinea coast, apparently under air and sea escort.

Nasution told a university group in Bandung that the landings were made at Sorong, on the western tip of New Guinea at Fakfak on the southwest coast and at Kaimana, in the south.

Nasution added that the navy and air force are patrolling along the beaches.

Nasution's remarks, added to a prepared speech, followed reports that fighting was taking place on Waigeo Island off West New Guinea. The Dutch denied a claim by Jakarta radio that Dutch Marines had been driven off the island with heavy casualties. The Dutch said they still held the island, 30 miles off West New Guinea.

The Dutch command in Hollandia, West New Guinea, reported last week that a band of Indonesians landed on Waigeo and said they were being mopped up. The Dutch claimed some of the infiltrators had surrendered.

An Indonesian army spokesman in Jakarta modified the Jakarta radio report. Col. Soejardo said the native islanders may have expelled the Dutch but it was not done by regular troops nor infiltrators.

Negotiations between the Netherlands and Indonesia on Indonesian claims to West New Guinea were suspended last week, but sources close to President Sukarno said in Jakarta they will probably be resumed.

Crop Damage by Cold Is Likely

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Cold weather that moved into the state last night and early today may bring damage to some crops, the Agriculture Extension Service said today.

Extension officials said that the freezing temperatures probably will delay the first strawberry harvest about a week.

Little damage was believed done to the south Arkansas tomato crop last night, but freezing temperatures are forecast again for tonight and growers were reported taking precautions.

The service said it was too early to estimate damage to the peach crop.

Lows of 21 in the northern part of the state to 30 in the south hit the state early today and similar temperatures are forecast for tonight with heavy frost in some areas.

Injuries Fatal

RAPID CITY, S.D. (AP) — An Arkansas airman stationed at Ellsworth Air Force Base, died Sunday of injuries received in a car wreck northwest of here Saturday night. He was identified as William B. May, 65, of Leachville. Four other airmen were injured, none seriously.

Southland Corporation Acquires Midwest Dairies

GEORGE WALDEN

The formal transfer in ownership of Midwest Dairies to the Southland Corporation, Texas-based food processing and marketing firm, was made April 12, with no change anticipated in name, personnel or business policy.

"The addition of Midwest, purchased from City Products Corp. of Chicago, extends Southland dairy operations into nine states and gives it a total of seven ice cream factories, ten milk processing plants and distribution facilities in more than 60 cities."

"Since 1936, the Southland Corporation has profitably operated one of the southwest's largest independent dairies," said H. E. Hanfelder, executive vice president. "We are confident that the excellent Midwest personnel coupled with our background of successful operation will result in profitable growth for this enlarged company."

"We welcome the opportunity alignment with Southland offers us and feel it a privilege to be a member of the Southland family of quality food companies," said

Civilians Plan Essay Contest

The Hope Civitan Club is sponsoring an international Citizenship Essay contest.

The subject is "Democracy vs. Communism as a way of life."

The Senior English Class of Hope High School is participating in this contest.

Three judges from Hope will examine the essays and present to the club the winning essay, which in turn will be sent by the club to the District Chairman and District Contest.

The first place international winner will receive a $2,000 scholarship. The local winner will be announced on April 15 by the Hope Civitan Club.

Grants to College

CONWAY, Ark. (AP) — Grants totaling $15,000 have been made to Arkansas State Teachers College for two in-service institutes for secondary school teachers of math, biology and chemistry. The grants were by the National Science Foundation. The institutes will be held on Saturdays during the 1961-1962 school year.

Russia Changes Mind About Inspections

By PATRICK MASSEY

GENEVA (AP) — Soviet Delegate Valerian A. Zorin said today the Kremlin has changed its mind about allowing nuclear test ban inspectors on Soviet soil because of new military measures taken by the Soviet Union.

These measures, Zorin told the 17-nation disarmament conference, were prompted by the Berlin situation and the Western military buildup.

He said that was why the Soviets backed away from their former agreement in principle for international control posts to be stationed on Soviet territory to supervise a nuclear test ban treaty.

Now that the Soviet Union has taken these measures to strengthen its defenses, Zorin said, the U.S.S.R. could not have foreigners on its territory. He did not go into detail about the military measures.

Zorin spoke after U.S. Delegate Arthur H. Dean said the Soviet Union had astounded the world by rejecting the controls it once had agreed were necessary. Dean called on the Soviets for a reversal of the totally unreasonable stand.

Western sources said Zorin's speech took on more of a cold war tone than his previous utterances at the conference.

Zorin reiterated that if the United States carries out nuclear tests in the atmosphere in late April the Soviet Union will be compelled to carry out more tests in turn.

Dean said the West's control requirements had been pared down to a minimum. He rejected Soviet assertions that the control machinery would be used as a cloak for espionage.

The American diplomat reported to the 13th plenary session of the conference on the result of last week's discussion in the subcommittee on nuclear testing. The committee wound up in deadlock with Zorin again refusing to accept international inspection on Soviet territory.

Annual FFA Rodeo Here Friday, Sat.

The Hope Chapter of the Future Farmers of America will hold their third annual rodeo in the Livestock Coliseum in Hope on the 6 and 7 of April at 8 p.m.

There will be a parade starting at the fire station at 4 p.m. on Friday, April 6. Everyone is invited to participate. Particularly if you have a horse you can ride. Also everyone is invited to ride in the grand entry which will start at 8 p.m. each night.

The entries in the events of the rodeo will be limited to boys who are members of the FFA. Several of our local boys will be entered and some good cowboys are coming from other chapters in Arkansas, Texas and Louisiana.

Tickets to the rodeo are now on sale and can be purchased from any FFA member. Admission on the advance tickets is as follows: Adults $1; students 50c, and those under school age are free.

Jack Sullivan Dies in California

More Government Agency Workers

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Senate group reported today the executive agencies of government have nearly a half million more employees on the payroll than in 1950, the low point since World War II.

The report by the Senate Government Operations Committee said its survey showed the 65 departments and agencies started 1962 with 2,418,846 workers an increase of 75,454 during calendar 1961. For security reasons, it said, the totals do not include any employees of the Central Intelligence Agency.

The report to the Senate filed by Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., noted the start-of-1962 total was 457,855 greater than on Jan. 1, 1950, the low point since the war.

Court Asks Arguments in Race Cases

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court called today for red argument of two key cases pressed before it by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

In one case, NAACP is attacking a Virginia law which it said would put it out of business in that state. The court heard two hours of argument on the appeal last Nov. 8. In ordering reargument today it did not specify a new time.

The other case is an appeal by the head of the Miami, Fla., branch of the NAACP from a conviction of contempt for refusing to produce a list of Miami members. This appeal was argued last Dec. 5. No new date for reargument was set in today's order.

The appeal was filed by Theodore R. Gibson, president of the Miami branch. He declined to take a Miami membership list to a hearing of the Florida Legislative Investigation Committee. He was sentenced to six months in jail and fined $1,200.

NAACP said the Virginia law is attacking bars it from underwriting the costs and providing counsel in litigation begun to test validity of state-imposed racial discrimination.

The statute calls such activity unlawful formenting and solicitation of legal business. Lawyers taking part in such cases are declared guilty of malpractice.

The law was included in a package of statutes passed at a 1956 special session of the legislature as part of the states massive resistance against racial integration.

NAACP appealed to the high tribunal after the Virginia Supreme Court upheld the law as a legitimate effort to strengthen the state's regulations on solicitation of business by attorneys.

The calls for reargument may mean the court wishes to have a full bench for the decisions in these cases.

With the retirement of Justice Charles E. Whittaker, there are now only eight members of the court.

President Kennedy has chosen Byron R. White to succeed Whittaker. White cannot take office until the selection is approved by the Senate.

Laneburg Class Play Tuesday

The Laneburg Senior Class will present their play, a three act farce entitled, "Hessie of the Hills," Tuesday night, April 3, at 7:30 p.m. in the school auditorium. Admission will be 25c for children and 50c for adults.

Characters for the play include: Parson Bumble, Dale Almand, Pa Crackett, Larry Carlton, Ma Crackett, Margaret Almand Porter, Hessie, Kay Ridgell, Arkansas Joyce Carlton, Berthy, Sue Spencer, Aunt Suzy, Mary Thompson, Abbie Snapp, Margaret Jones, Grandpappy, Billy Clements, Elmer Apperust, Jesse Jones, Daniel P. M. T. Cason, 52, of Spring Hill, Dies Saturday

Monroe Thomas Cason, 52, of the Spring Hill Community, died Saturday afternoon enroute to a local hospital. He was a retired oil worker, having worked 37 years for Oldo Oil Co. He was a Methodist.

Survivors include his wife, Alpha Rogers Cason, one daughter, Mrs. Fred Riley of Orange, Texas and two grandchildren.

Funeral services were to be held at 2 p.m. Monday at Spring Hill Methodist Church with Rev. James Shadrox officiating. Interment was in Sullivan Cemetery near Spring Hill with Oakerest Funeral Home in charge.

Field Is Wide Open as Faubus Decides to Leave Politics

2 Have Filed, Many Others Mentioned

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — At least a dozen gubernatorial prospects appeared ready today to jump into Arkansas' boiling political waters vacated over the weekend by Gov. Orval E. Faubus.

And Faubus is predicting up to 20 may get in the swim for the Democratic nomination.

Two, Rep. Dale Alford, D-Ark., and Little Rock attorney Kenneth Coffelt, had previously announced their candidacy regardless of Faubus' plans.

The four-term governor, pushed into the international spotlight by racial strife, told a statewide television and radio audience Saturday night he is bowing out to rest "and write" his story of the Little Rock integration crisis of the late 1950s.

Arkansas Republican circles remained strangely quiet concerning GOP plans following the governor's announcement.

Winthrop Rockefeller, the Republican national committeeman from Arkansas, said he feels Faubus' decision "does not change the position of the Republican Party, its thinking or its program."

At least one political foe of Faubus announced his disappointment at the governor's pending retirement.

Forrest Rozzell, executive secretary of the powerful Arkansas Education Association, said he had hoped the governor would seek a fifth term "and let the people react in that event I think he would have been beaten."

Most potential candidates for the chief executive's post, headed by former Gov. Sid McMath, are persistent in their refusal to discuss the race.

Frank Holt, the Arkansas attorney general, was one of the first to take a cue from the departing governor. "I have nurtured an ambition to serve my state as governor since boyhood," Holt told newsmen.

Another prospect, Wallace Hurley of Camden, a printing executive, with no prior political experience, already has reserved political headquarters but has not yet officially announced.

Marvin Melton of Jonesboro, a former state senator and state Chamber of Commerce president, says a political fund of between $25,000 and $30,000 has been raised by his supporters. He, too, has hedged on an official entry.

A half dozen others are busy making it known they'd like the job.

In the meantime, a relaxed, but not yet nostalgic Faubus is sitting back, watching a familiar game.

Killed in Texas

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Spec. A.C. John W. Tucker of North Little Rock, Ark., stationed at Dyess Air Force Base, Tex., was killed near here Sunday when the car he was driving skidded 157 feet into an overpass support. An Army recruit riding with Tucker was injured.

Cold Weather Hits Arkansas

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Cold weather hit the state today, matching at least one record low and possibly snapping others.

Temperatures ranged from the low of 21 at Fayetteville in the north to 31 at Camden in the southern part of the state.

At Little Rock the low of 30 matched the same mark set April 2 in 1881.

Tabulations of record lows and highs for stations around the state are not immediately available at the Little Rock Bureau.

The cold snap brought light snow flurries to Harrison and scattered frost was reported in the northern sections of the state.

The forecast calls for a freeze warning again tonight with considerable frost. Lows are expected to be in the 20s in the north and the 30s in the south.

Warmer weather is forecast for Tuesday.

Guidance Supervisor Here Tuesday

Lolloy Pennington, state supervisor of guidance services, state department of education, will be one of the special guests at Hope High School Counselors' Visitation Day, April 3.

He will be one of three speakers at the PTA meeting that night in the high school auditorium, discussing "An Overview of Guidance Services."

Mr. Pennington was high school counselor at Fairview from 1946-49 and El Dorado 1950-53. He received his masters at the U of A and has done additional graduate work at Michigan State U and Peabody College.

Asks Opinion on Printing Contracts

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Secretary of State Nancy Hall will ask Attorney General Frank Holt today to rule whether she can permit bidders on state printing contracts to increase their bonds.

Mrs. Hall said she would draft a letter to Holt requesting the opinion.

Until Holt replies, she said, she will not announce the low bidders on 15 state printing contracts worth about $1 million. Bids were opened Friday and tabulated Friday and Saturday.

Mrs. Hall now knows who made the low bid, but some of the bidders failed to post a $15,000 bond required on 12 of the 15 contracts.

The contracts are those once held by the Parkin Printing Co. of Little Rock and invalidated by a Supreme Court decision.

Arkansas Printing and Lithographing Co. of Little Rock, the firm which filed the suit which resulted in invalidation of the Parkin contracts, was one of six

Sees No Way to Settle Problem of Integration

By JOHN R. STARR

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Orval E. Faubus bid temporary farewell to Arkansas politics Saturday night with a warning that the integration problem may never be satisfactorily solved.

Faubus barely mentioned the 1957 Little Rock integration crisis, which made him a leading spokesman for the segregationist side, but he attacked race-mixing as an evil which would "destroy racial integrity."

Faubus spent several minutes of a 30-minute televised swan song discussing his premise that there is a basic difference between the races and "the closer the people of different races are pushed together, the greater becomes the enmity and the hatred."

"All the talk, the arguments, theories and ideas advanced on this issue cannot change the fact that the races of men are different," he said.

"Racial attitudes (in the South) may not change for generations. They may never change in the history of the world, because they have never changed in all prior history."

Faubus said he was continually irritated because integrationists had expected Little Rock to solve a problem quickly that had not been solved since the dawn of recorded time.

The governor said he was sure the people of Arkansas approved his actions in the integration controversy. "Or you could have turned me out of this office long ago."

Faubus became a segregationist champion by using National Guard troops to block integration of Little Rock Central High School in September, 1957. President Eisenhower federalized the Guard and enforced integration with federal troops.

troops.
Undaunted, Faubus closed Little Rock high schools in 1958 and delayed integration for a year, but federal courts invalidated his school-closing law and a token plan of integration went into effect when schools reopened in Aug., 1959.
With strong segregationist backing, Faubus pulled 68 per cent of the votes in the 1958 Democratic primary, the first election after the integration crisis. He drew about 57 per cent in his unprecedented fourth term bid in 1960.
He will have been chief executive eight years when he steps out next January.
The segregationists never seemed to mind that Faubus' efforts to stop integration were unsuccessful or that he refused to take a hand in minor integration disputes that broke out at Van Buren in 1953 and Pine Bluff in 1960.
Faubus feels, however, that his actions helped slow the progress of school integration. "We put the spotlight on the effects of integration," he said in a recent interview, "and those effects are shown to be bad."
Faubus said he has no objection to equal job opportunities and equal justice, but he feels social integration inevitably will lead to intermarriage. He dwelt on this threat in his speech Saturday night.
But most of the speech was devoted to praise of his administration and the personal reasons why he is withdrawing from politics.
He said he might run again some day, but now he wants to rest and write. He indicated he would write his side of the integration crisis, a story he feels has never been told.
Faubus' retirement probably will bring a host of candidates for his job. He predicts a field of 10 to 20 in the Democratic primary. At least a dozen men have indicated they would run if Faubus quit.
Only two—Rep. Dale Alford, D-Ark., and Kenneth Coffelt, a Little Rock attorney—committed themselves to run before Faubus withdrew.
Arkansas last had a gubernatorial race without an incumbent in the field in 1948, when Gov. Ben Laney stepped down after two terms.

Army Officers
in Syria Take Control

By GEORGE A. MCARTHUR

CAIRO (AP)—Army officers demanding reunion of Syria and President Gamal Abdel Nasser's United Arab Republic were reported in revolt today in northern Syria.
A broadcast from Aleppo, Syria, the second largest city, said a "free officers command" had rebelled against the military leaders who broke with the U.A.R.
last September and then toppled the country's civilian government last week.
The Aleppo broadcast said the rebel command had declared martial law in "northern and eastern areas" of Syria.
"All authorities in the two areas are under orders of the area command," said the broadcast communique.
The embattled junta announced that it was willing to hold a plebiscite on the question of reuniting with Egypt.
Damascus radio said the junta believed in "unity with all liberated Arab countries and first of all with Egypt, provided this unity is established on a genuine basis and with conditions guaranteeing the dignity of this country and its entity, and avoiding the mistakes of the past."
The statement said that union with Egypt must be decided by a popular, free referendum.
When the junta took over last week, it made clear it did not want to go back to union with Egypt but called for the closest of relations with Nasser's Cairo regime.
Reports reached Beirut, Lebanon, of demonstrations against the junta in Aleppo, Homs, Tar-tous and Deir ez Zor. At least five soldiers were reported killed in a clash Sunday at Homs, 100 miles north of Damascus, between pro-Nasser civilians and government troops.
Telephone contact between Beirut and Aleppo was cut, but circuits remained open between Beirut and Damascus. The junta in a series of broadcast communiques banned meetings of more than five persons, proclaimed a nightly curfew throughout the country from 8 p.m. until 5 a.m. and closed the frontiers although not the airports.
The rebellious officers denounced the junta as an "erring and exploitive group" and accused it of seizing power again last week to "satisfy individual ambitions disregarding the interest and security of the country."
The broadcast communique charged that in breaking away from Egypt last fall, the military

Boston Back to Normal as Strike Ends

BOSTON (AP)—Street cars and buses ran again in the Boston metropolitan area today after a two-day wildcat strike shut down the system.
Operator Robert King, 48, took the first street car out of the Arboretum station at 4:10 a.m.
Three-fourths of the 4,000 Carmen's Union members agreed Sunday night to go back to work for the Metropolitan Transit authority.
The MTA was taken over by the state early Sunday morning. The former head of the Massachusetts state police, Otis M. Whitney, was placed in command of the sprawling system.
Whitney, who is state insurance commissioner and was a major general, commanding officer of the 26th (Yankee) National Guard Infantry Division, was delegated to run the system by Gov. John A. Volpe.
Volpe assumed control of the MTA for the state after the legislature met in an extraordinary session Saturday night and authorized seizure for a maximum for 45 days.
The union members refused to work Saturday and left nearly half a million commuters stranded because of a dispute over spring

Millionaire Texan Is Still in Jail

EL PASO, Tex. (AP)—Hopes of multimillionaire Billie Sol Estes to go free from jail apparently rested on a federal court appearance today.
An associate said he was confident, however, that Estes' $500-000 bond could be raised if a plea for lower bail was unavailing.
Estes and three other businessmen are charged with conspiring to take fraudulent chattel mortgages from one state to another.
Asst. U.S. Atty. Wayne Speck told newsmen the government would oppose any reduction of bond when Estes goes before U.S.
Dist. Judge R. E. Thomason.
Officers drove Estes to El Paso Sunday from Pecos, where he had been held since Friday night.
The 37-year-old prisoner ignored questions from newsmen.
An addition to the mushrooming troubles of Estes was suspension of the state grain warehouse license held by one of his firms,

Tornadoes
in Florida Kill 25

MILTON, Fla. (AP)—The tornado which ripped through Milton and killed 15 persons may have been one of the most powerful ever to strike in this state.
Gov. Farris Bryant and a group of city and county officials toured the stricken area Sunday and saw first hand how completely the Saturday twister devastated a residential area in this northwest Florida town.
Bryant said he was appalled at the violent force of the winds, which in one area blasted a group of houses so thoroughly that the foundations couldn't be found.
For the width of about three blocks, the twister swept down every house and ripped every tree to shreds, leaving only bare tree stubs.
Bryant said federal authorities were expected to begin assessing the damages today for possible assistance. The civilian defense organization and highway patrol have fixed a preliminary damage figure of $1.5 million.
The Guardsmen and highway patrolmen closed off the storm area to keep out sightseers and prevent looting.
The task of burying the dead gets under way today and will continue through the week.

Five Convicts Escape From San Quentin

SAN QUENTIN, Calif. (AP)— Five convicts, two or more of them described as dangerous, climbed a ladder and escaped from San Quentin Prison early today.
Dispatcher J. R. O'Brien said the men, serving sentences ranging from 6 months to life, broke into a storeroom, stole a ladder and went over a 15-foot wall. They had been working in a cotton textile mill in the prison's industrial section, located behind the inner walls of the prison.
The convicts apparently left the prison grounds on foot, O'Brien said.
They were identified as J. Du Bois, 29, first-degree robbery, 5 years to life; G. C. Roark, 27, second-degree burglary, 6 months to 5 years; J. L. Rucker, grand theft, 6 months to 10 years; K. E.
Adams, 31, parole violator, 6 months to 5 years; and J. P.
Spatola, 31, first-degree robbery, 5 years to life.
San Quentin, built in 1851, houses some of California's toughest criminals. Four fatal stabbings occurred within a two-week period last December.
The prison, built to hold some 2,800 inmates, currently houses some 4,944 convicts.

First Lady Getting to Be TV Regular

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP-Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Television had a number of noteworthy items for the viewers—particularly the women—and, quite by chance, loaded them all into Sunday night's schedule.

Starting the evening's entertainment was "Jacqueline Kennedy's Journey" on NBC, a sort of combination travelogue and fashion show of special interest because of the identity of the traveler and owner of the clothes.

Our First Lady is a beautiful, charming and amazingly durable young woman. NBC's color motion pictures of her recent Far Eastern goodwill trip were rich and interesting. This viewer, however, has already seen so many pictures of Mrs. John F. Kennedy during her journey that I must confess to a certain restlessness toward the end of the hour-long recap of the trip. But it was fun to look at her beautiful clothes, and those of her sister, Princess Lee Radziwill.

A word should be added about the musical background of the film: it sounded like Ernie Kovacs' Naitrois trio playing "Let a Smile Be Your Umbrella" over and over, off key.

Then along came "Hercule Poirot" on CBS' GE Theater—a pilot for a future series and a bitter disappointment to this fan of Agatha Christie, who created the little Belgian detective Poirot in a series of books.

Martin Gabel played Poirot as an unlikely and pompous cross between Nero Wolfe and Sherlock Holmes. The adaptation of the Christie story was just as silly.

ABC's star-studded variety show on behalf of Eleanor Roosevelt's Cancer Foundation and the American Cancer Society was a succession of acts by such big names as Jimmy Durante, Dinah Shore and Harry Belafonte well laced

Accidents Take Toll of Youths

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Multiple-death traffic accidents littered highways and streets with an alarming number of dead and injured during the first full week-end of spring.

A total of 61 died in 16 accidents, most of them teen-agers and young college students.

Eight persons were killed in a single Canadian accident Sunday. They were occupants of a car struck by a train at a crossing east of Drummondville, Que.

Six youths, ranging in age from 16 to 21, were killed near Modesto, Calif., Sunday in the flaming head-on crash of two autos. Two others were seriously injured.

State highway patrol officers said a car driven by Jake Green, 17, of Modesto swerved at high speed and slammed into one driven by Darryl A. Borges, 21, of Gustine, Calif.

Near Jacksonville, Fla., five coeds from Duke University were killed Sunday when their convertible spun out of control on rain-soaked U.S. 17 and careened into two semi-trailer trucks.

The five, all graduating nursing students, were returning to the North Carolina school after spending the spring holidays in Miami and Fort Lauderdale, where thousands of college students congregate annually.

Five persons were killed in a collision at Hebron, Wis., Friday night.

Four youngsters ranging in age from 15 to 18 died Sunday when their car was struck by a fast-moving train on the main street of tiny Luverne, N.D. A fifth teen-ager was critically injured.

Four teen-aged girls were killed and four of their companions were critically injured Sunday when one car plowed into the rear of another near Livermore, Calif.

Four other young persons died near Marshall, Tex., Sunday when their car veered off U.S. 80 and overturned in a creek. The dead were trapped in the auto, which passersby found submerged with only the four tires showing above the water.

Near Riverside, Calif., a car hit concrete abutment on the Riverside freeway Sunday, killing four persons, including three members of one family.

Four persons, including boys aged 5 and 14 years, were killed in a collision near Mount Vernon, Ohio, Friday night. Police said one car apparently rolled over the top of a second one and landed upside down on the opposite side.

Near Gas City, Ind., Ralph Walke 22, his wife and their infant daughter, of Jonesboro, Ind., were killed Saturday night when their car was hit by a Pennsylvania Railroad freight train.

Three men died Saturday night in a head-on collision on U.S. 24 in central Illinois. Near Riverton, Wyo., Wesley E. Bryant, 35, of Riverton, his son and another boy were killed in a head-on collision on a straight, open stretch of highway.

Two persons died in each of three separate accidents late Saturday — at Okhata, Wash.; near Wynnewood, southern Oklahoma and at Washington, Md. Two elderly persons were fatally injured Sunday in a car collision near Fulton, N.Y.

with fund appeals and news of cancer research.

Finally, there was NBC's "The Beauty of Women," which was perhaps most interesting in the beginning when it tried to define beauty and describe a "love goddess."

It was an interesting, often amusing program although no one ever came up with a good definition of beauty.

Science Shrinks Pills New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery.

In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place.

Most amazing of all—results were so thorough that sufferers made astounding statements. "Piles have ceased to be a problem."

The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®)—discovered by a world-famous research institute. This substance is now available in suppository or ointment form under the name Prepared H. At your druggist. Money-back guarantee.

From the Roman designer, Eleanor Garnett, come these striking fashions. The little black dress for after-five (left) is done in silk crepe with single sleeve balanced by shoul-der drape. Hostess costume (right) was inspired by Turkistan dress. It is done in orange silk shantung wrapped at the ankles with brocade.

From Italy come these long knitted tops paired with short shorts for beach wear. Orlon is used for straight top (left) in royal blue and white trimmed with thick boucle fringe. Shir-like top (right) knitted of nylon has scalloped and fringed collar and hemline. Both are Galitzine designs. Both have shorts in matching knit.

DOROTHY DIX Self-Conscious Husband Suffers Tortures

By HELEN WORDEN ERKINE

Dear Helen: You often say that men don't like to be ignored. That's false. Being tongue-tied by nature and having little to write home about when it comes to looks, my one ambition is to coast through life unnoticed.

Yet I can't so much as cross the street without a traffic cop yelling, "Hey, you, sleepwalker! Wake up and pay attention to the lights!" There the crowd litters and the spotlight is on me. It's the same at the parties my wife drags me to. I'll be busy doing the vanishing act when somebody shouts, "Well, if it isn't Casanova Smith himself! Don't fall for this wolf's fine, girls."

Now, I've never had a thing to do with any woman but my wife but that makes no never-mind to those monkeys. If I fly off the handle and tell them a thing or two, they laugh. Should I ignore their jibes no matter what? I really suffer the tortures of the damned. —Self-conscious

Dear Self-conscious: Acute shyness amounts to a disease and should be cured before it wrecks your life. In extreme cases, psychiatric treatment may be necessary. But, if you've got the will, you can overcome it yourself. Join a class in public speaking. Learn to tell a good story. Instead of slinking into a corner, prove you can be the life of the party by taking the initiative. In the doing, you'll find that life is indeed worth the living.

Dear Helen: I work in an office with an older woman who assumes my mentality to be that of a 6-year-old. Try as I will to be nice to her, all I get is a frosty "Thank you." If I make a mistake, she is first to let me know the seriousness of it. She has even gone to the "Big Boss."

In all the time I've worked Worden Erskine. Be sure to enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope and address her care of her in a mistake, she'll shrug her shoulders and give a snippy, available. Write for "On Being

"Oh, well, so what?" I love people and never have any trouble getting along with them — except this Dragon. Others in the office treat me fine. How can I win Miss Dragon over? —Long-Suffering Secretary

Dear Long-Suffering: There's a dragon in every office or, for that matter, in everyone's life. See yours for what she probably is: a frustrated spinster who has never had a man look twice in her direction. It goes without saying, you're young, pretty and popular, else you wouldn't arouse her ire. You have three alternatives: give up your job; grin and bear the dragon or find her a boy friend. The last would be the most fun and probably the surest cure. Enlist the help of others in the office. Let me know what happens.

Dear Helen: Having reared four children, all a credit to us, my husband and I are putting our freedom to good use but feel a twinge of conscience. My hobbies and clubwork so fill my days that I only get to visit our grandchildren every week or so. Not that I don't love them, but it isn't in my nature to make a fuss over them like other grandmas. My husband whose days are also crowded, reserves Sundays for them; but, even then, I'm too busy to tag along. Do I owe more to my grandchildren than they are getting from me? —Busy Grand-ma

Dear Busy: Children are quick to detect the false from the true. Be yourself. See your grandchildren, not from a sense of duty, but because you honestly enjoy their company. Make the feeling mutual by sharing some of your hobbies with them. Nothing makes a child happier than to be treated as an equal.

Send your problem to Helen Worden Erskine. Be sure to enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope and address her care of her in a mistake, she'll shrug her shoulders and give a snippy, available. Write for "On Being

Eleven Deaths by Violence

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A northeast Arkansas man, severely burned in a house fire, fell into a drainage ditch and drowned a short time later Sunday, bringing to 11 the number of persons dying violently in Arkansas during the week ended last midnight.

Police Chief Buck Guin of Lepanto said 49-year-old Nathan Davis of near Riverdale, suffered severe burns when his clothing caught fire in the burning house.

Two companions extinguished Davis' burning clothing and then sought help.

Guin said Davis, in the meantime, crawled into the ditch and drowned.

Jasper Rice, a 48-year-old Park Negro carpenter, was killed Sunday when an overheated coal stove exploded at his house. Rice was alone at the time of the accident.

During the week, five others died in traffic accidents while four persons were killed in a car-train collision at Stuttgart Friday night.

Liz Sends Eddie a Message

ROME (AP)—Elizabeth Taylor sent a courier to New York over the weekend with a personal message to Eddie Fisher and then took her three children by previous husbands on a date with Richard Burton.

Miss Taylor was protected against photographers by police and a chauffeur swinging a broom on her leisurely Sunday off from her film role as Cleopatra.

The husky Burton, who plays Marc Antony opposite Miss Taylor in the film, was by her side in public for the second day running as they dined together.

Fisher, the slight singer who left Debbie Reynolds and his two children to marry the widowed Miss Taylor three years ago, was in the United States still professing that everything was romantically okay in his life.

Kurt Frings, agent for the couple, told newsmen on arriving in New York Sunday that he had "a message for Eddie" from Liz. He would say only that it was "a personal message—a private matter."

Burton's wife and children went from Rome to England last week. Miss Taylor and Burton, linked romantically in the gossip columns, went night-clubbing Friday night.

Seeks 4th Term

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Sam Jones announced Saturday he will seek a fourth term as State Land Commissioner. Jones, 51, is a native of Lonoke. He was first elected to office in 1956 after running unsuccessfully against J. Vance Clayton for state Treasurer.

Poultry Exports Drop Sharply

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP)—A sharp reduction in exports of frozen chickens to European countries through the Port of New Orleans has been reported by Port Director W. J. Amoss.

A large part of the export of Georgia-produced chickens moves through the Port of New Orleans.

While not attributing the decline directly to the European common market, Amoss said, "recently the duty of frozen chickens was increased considerably. Four or five months ago three shiploads of frozen chickens a month were moving out of the port to northern European markets. Now only about one and a half ships a month is moving out. The volume has been seriously reduced."

Texarkanian Held

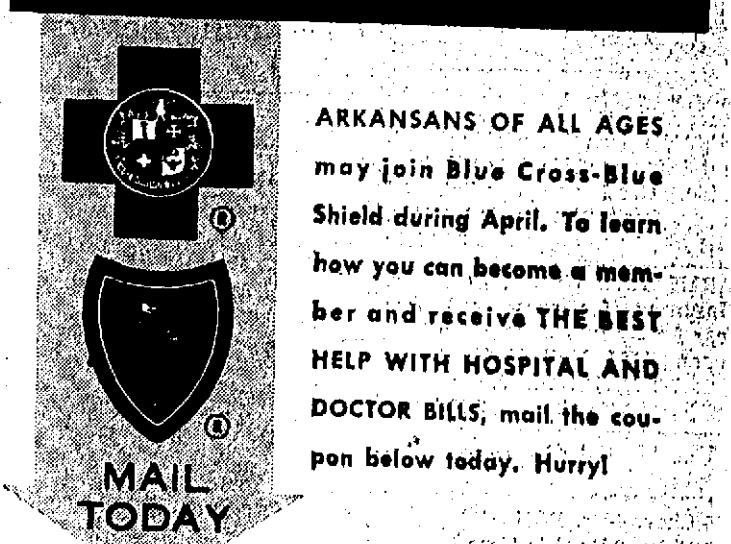

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. (AP) — Police reported here Sunday that Harold A. Martin, 24, a Texarkana, Tex., parole violator, has admitted striking a missing Illinois man with a hammer and dumping him near Texarkana. The missing man was identified as James Davis, 35, of Aurora, Ill. Officers said Martin was turned in by a 17-year-old girl who had accompanied him from Texarkana.

Parking Lot Notice

The Parking Lot at Hazel and Division Streets owned by Hope Star has been graded, gravelled and marked — and reservations for parking space at $3 per month in advance are now being taken, to be effective Monday, April 2.

Reservations may be made at Hope Star office, 212-14 S. Walnut St., from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m.; or remittance may be made by mail, and an available lot number will be assigned.

One warning will be given autos parked without reservation; after that they will be towed from the premises.

No curbside parking is permitted on either the Hazel or Division sides of the parking lot as this would block entrance to the numbered stalls.

President in Argentina Fills Cabinet

By ROBERT BERRELLEZ

BUENOS AIRES (AP)—President Jose Maria Guido today named completion of a patchwork Cabinet to get the stalled Argentine government machine going. However, he faced major road blocks.

The quiet, diminutive chief executive, who moved into the presidency after the ouster of Arturo Frondizi, has filled all Cabinet posts except foreign relations, economy and the three military secretaries that operate under the Defense Ministry.

Guido's selection of a Cabinet after four days of effort still left him with the prospect of an unfriendly Congress when it reconvenes May 1. Most politicians turned a deaf ear to a plea for a political truce by the armed forces chiefs who ousted Frondizi and imprisoned him.

Though Guido is a leader of Frondizi's Intransigent Radical party, the party's central committee was bitter at the military domination of the government and declared: "We came into power with Frondizi, we leave with him."

Another headache confronting Guido is whether to recognize the election victories on March 18 of adherents of deposed dictator Juan D. Peron, the issue that brought down Frondizi.

The majority of the politicians—including the Intransigent Radicals—favor giving the Peronists the five state governorships and the 43 congressional seats they won last month. The military is determined to keep the exiled Peron and his supporters out of political life even though they polled the largest vote in the March 18 election.

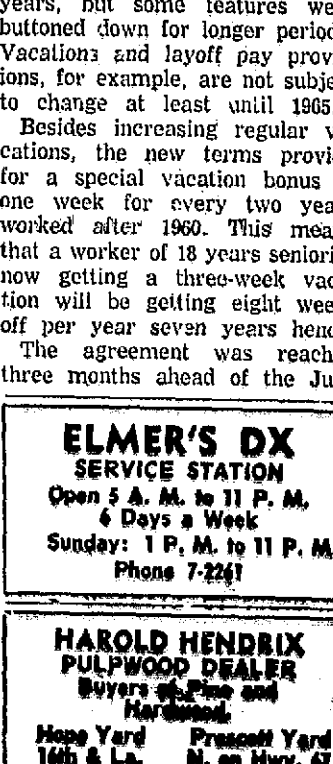

Even if the Peronists were allowed to take their seats in Congress, anti-Peron forces would muster a majority if the Intransigent Radicals and the opposition Popular Radicals patched together some kind of working coalition.

Guido also must decide whether a special presidential election is called or whether he will serve the two years remaining in Frondizi's term. As Argentina had no vice president, Guido as Senate president was next in line to step into Frondizi's shoes.

Banking on Death

BY EMMA LATHEN

THE STORY: Four cousins, Arthur, Robert and Martin Schneider, and Mrs. Grace Walworth, are heirs to an estate that will be distributed after the death of Martin's mother, Hilda. The Sloan bank administers the trust. Robert Schneider's murder has complicated matters.

Chapter 13

While Kenneth Nicolls in Framingham was somewhat tentatively trying to assess Arthur Schneider's response to his cousin's murder and Peter Self in Buffalo was grimly investigating everyone who had ever known the late Robert Schneider, John Thatcher was dismissing a taxicab on the south side of Washington Square so that he could walk through the park to Martin Henderson's apartment on Waverly Place.

His ring was almost immediately answered by a tall, broad-shouldered man who greeted him heartily.

"Come in, come in! You must be John Thatcher from the Sloan. I just got back from the office."

His smile was startlingly white against a sun tan which had been carefully preserved in the midst of a New York winter.

"Very kind of you to rush back on my account. I'm sorry to a convenience you."

"Delighted I could make it," Martin rejoined, ushering Thatcher down a long narrow corridor and into a room at the back of the house.

The original wood moldings and pilasters had been allowed to remain, but they had been tinted the same stark white; the walls, the rear wall had been replaced by a wall of glass opening onto a pocket hamperchief garden which was dominated by a slender black nymph rising from a small pool. The glass was framed by opulent draperies of a clear, vivid blue silk, and a severely linear divan backed several deep but narrow as chairs, all upholstered in a dark, earth brown.

It was not, surprise that young Nicolls had been impressed, and Thatcher no longer wondered why Henderson preferred with some insistence, to receive his callers at his home, rather than his office.

"Scotch or bobon?" While Thatcher had been examining the room, Martin had opened a deceptively simple chest to reveal a fairly comprehensive bar. Restraining the impulse to ask for something exotic in the hopes of puncturing his host's performance, Thatcher accepted a Scotch.

Martin did seem to suffer from his cousin's compulsion to rush into each. He responded amiably but uninformatively to Thatcher's dyes for some minutes before finally leaning forward and making his opening gambit.

"I suppose," he said shrewdly, "that it was the Sloan that set the police on me."

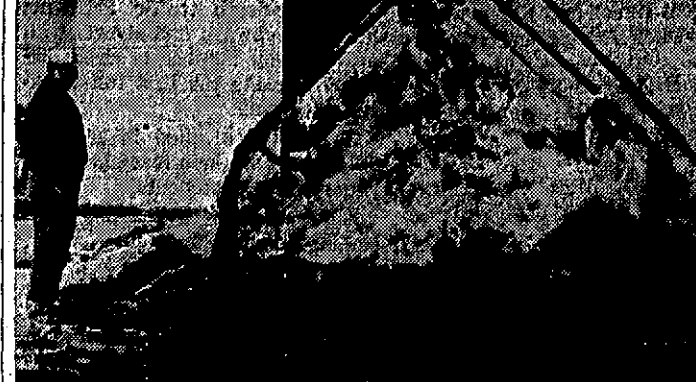

"Have they been to you?" replied Thatcher blandly. "We had to communicate with them on the question of proving identification, and they seemed interested in the details of the trust."

"They were," said Henderson dryly. In fact they now regard the Schneider family as prime suspect.

"Surely not. The man I spoke with indicated that Buffalo was teeming with potential suspects."

"If Bob Schneider lived there for any length of time, I expect it is he had a genius for straying his landscape with enemies."

"Imagine this is just a routine check so that they can cross you off and concentrate on the real scene."

JUST USELESS—Aside from pipe bowls, science has not yet found an industrial use for corn cobs in sufficient quantities to justify the expense of shipping them from most country elevators. Here, a farmer watches while a fire disposes of piled-up cobs at an elevator in Jackson, Miss.

"Imagine this is just a routine check so that they can cross you off and concentrate on the real scene."

"They asked about alibis, and they're certainly not crossing me on the basis of mine," said Martin sourly.

"Oh!"

"Yes, apparently it happened on the night of that big storm we had. I left the office about two o'clock to go to the trade show at the Coliseum. When I came out it was sleeting and snowing and, naturally, there wasn't a taxi in sight. So I hopped into the subway and came down here. I had a ticket to the hockey game at the Garden, but it was so bad out that I decided to cook dinner myself and spend the evening here with a book."

"Well, well, you're probably worrying about nothing, and they'll find their man in Buffalo within the next few days."

"Well, anyway," said Martin, recalling his duties as a host, "You didn't come here to talk about alibis."

"I'm afraid that you won't find the information I have for you much of an improvement. It seems that your cousin, Robert Schneider, left children—two boys."

"Well, what difference does that make?"

"His share of the trust passes to them."

"You mean, I still only get a hundred thousand?"

"That is the case."

be used for the purpose of financing a portion of the cost of securing and developing industry within Hempstead County, Arkansas. The particular industrial project will consist of the acquisition of lands, the construction of an egg processing plant and facilities, the construction of housing facilities for laying hens, and the purchase and installation of necessary equipment and machinery. The cost of the project not covered by the bond issue will be paid by the bond issue. The portion of the project financed by the bond issue will be owned by the County and leased to Delight Egg Farms, Inc., for lease rentals at least sufficient to pay the principal of, interest on and paying agent's fees in connection with the bonds as the same become due and payable.

There will be levied a continuing annual tax of two (2) mills on the assessed valuation of the taxable real and personal property in the County, which said levy will continue until the principal of, interest on and paying agent's fees in connection with the bonds have been fully paid and discharged; provided, however, provision will be made for the suspension of the collection of the tax so long as project revenues are sufficient to pay the principal of, interest on and paying agent's fees in connection with the bonds as the same become due and payable, and maintain the reserve fund of $22,000.

The assessed valuation of Hempstead County, according to the 1961 assessment, latest assessment of record, is $13,680,720.

The purchaser may name the bank of payment and shall have the right to convert the bonds to an issue bearing a lower rate or rates of interest with any conversion to be upon such terms that the County receive no less and pay no more than it would receive and pay if the bonds were not converted. Any conversion will be subject to the approval of the Bank of Payment and the County Court.

Expenses of the issue, including the printing and trustee of the bonds and the fee of Mehaffy, Smith & Williams, Bond Counsel of Little Rock, Arkansas, upon whose approving opinion the bonds will be issued, will be paid by the County's fiscal agent, Dabbs Sullivan Company, Little Rock, Arkansas.

The bonds will be callable for payment prior to maturity in inverse numerical order at par and accrued interest from funds from any source on interest paying date. It will be provided that surplus tax revenues and surplus project revenues over and above the amount necessary to pay the principal of, interest on and paying agent's fees in connection with the bonds as the same become due and payable, and to establish and maintain a reserve for contingencies in the amount of $22,000, must be used from time to time on each interest paying date for the redemption of bonds prior to maturity as soon as funds are available therefor.

No contingent provisions may be included in any bid and no bid of less than par and accrued interest will be entertained.

The bonds will be sold upon auction bids, the sale to be held at 1 o'clock p. m., on the 23rd day of April, 1962 at the office of the County Judge in the Hempstead County Courthouse, Hope, Arkansas. Each bidder will be required to deposit a certified or cashier's check in the amount of $4,900 on a bank that is a member of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation payable to the County, to be retained as liquidated damages, in the event the bidder is awarded the sale of the bonds but fails to complete the purchase. Checks of unsuccessful bidders will be promptly returned. Interest will not be paid on good faith checks. The County reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

For further information address the undersigned.

Oaklawn Goes Into Final Racing Week

HOPE, Ark. (AP)—Oaklawn Park enters its seventh and last week of racing today with new records in mutual handle and attendance in sight.

Unofficial figures for the first six weeks show wagering up nearly $4 million from the same period a year ago.

Betting has totaled $20,245,777 compared to the 1961 six-week total of $17,873,053.

Attendance, likewise, is on the upswing, with 341,786 fans recorded compared to 323,121 for the corresponding period last year.

Jockey Larry Spraker, whose 10-day riding suspension ends Friday, goes into the final week of racing with a nine-winner lead over fast-closing Wayne Chambers for Oaklawn riding honors.

Spraker, in 223 mounts, has returned 44 winners, 34 seconds and 26 thirds.

Chambers has ridden 35 winners in 192 trips. He's also brought in 34 seconds and 23 thirds.

Ronnie Campbell and Ken Griffith are tied for third, each with 21 winners.

Rounding out the top 10 riders are Calvin Stone with 17, Robert Gallimore, 15, and Harlan Olson, Eugene Curry and Jack Fieselman, each with 12.

Stone has left the Oaklawn meeting while Gallimore is under a 10-day suspension imposed last Thursday.

Jockey Richard Winant urged Blue Crown on in Saturday's $12,500 Oaklawn Handicap and raced under the wire with a nose victory over Gomer Evans' favored Gay Revolve.

Gay Revolve was disqualified for interference and dropped to third while Interceptor, racing under the colors of the Jacnot Stable, was advanced to second.

Blue Crown covered the mile and a sixteenth in 1:44 1-5 and returned $28.00, $15.00 and $7.40.

The crowd of 15,726, third largest of the season, wagered $627,750.

The $3,000 Arkansas Fair Queen Purse headlines today's nine-race card.

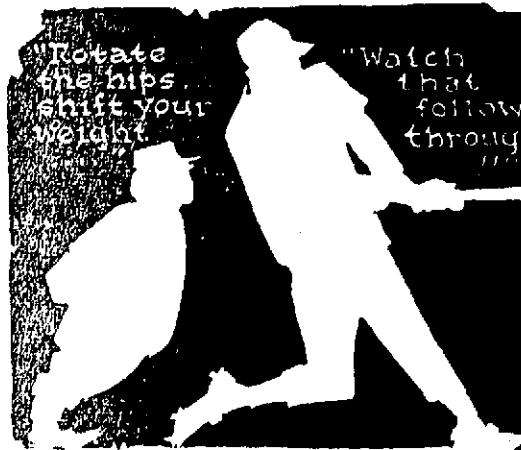

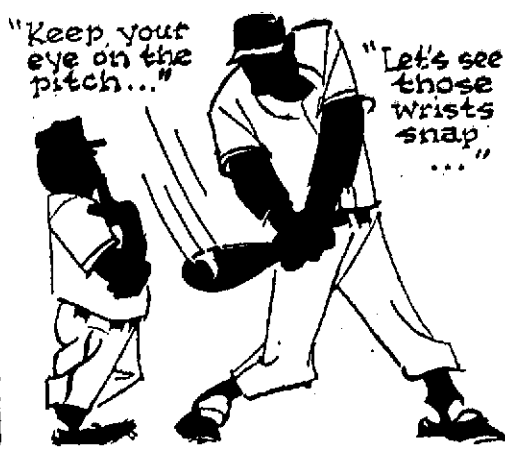

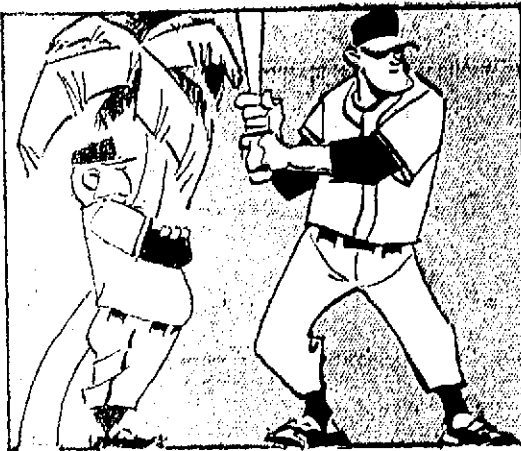

The mile and 70-yard allowance event is for three and four-year-olds. Topweighted with 122 pounds is the field of seven in W. Hal Bishop's Phoenix Bird, the probable favorite with Ken Griffith doing the piloting.

The main threat appears to be the Jacnot Stable's Marron, seeking his second straight Oaklawn victory.

Others in the short field are G. M. Holsinger and Doug Davis Jr.'s Real Hickory, H. S. Cohoon's Sun Ponder, Emil A. Dust's Hub, Luther Shelton's Yoigal and the Smart style Stable's Chance Roulette.

H. Estopinal and A. A. Arnold's Touch Bar arrives today from the New Orleans Fair Grounds to complete the lineup for the $25,000 Louisiana Derby, won by Admiral's Voyage.

Teachers Win Conference Meet

ARKADELPHIA, Ark. (AP) — Arkansas State Teachers scored 93½ points and bettered two records to dominate the Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference Relays here Saturday.

Ouachita placed second with 36 points. Hendrix was third with 26½, followed by Arkansas A&M with 23½, Henderson with 23, Ozarks with 3½ and Southern State with 2½. Harding failed to score. Arkansas Tech did not enter.

Wilbur Owens led the ASTC effort, winning the 100 and 220-yard low hurdle and contributing to the 440 and 880-yard relay teams effort.

The Teachers bettered the mile relay mark by four-tenths of a second and the discus by 2½ feet. The mile relay was run in 3:23.2 and Don Ketcheside threw the discus 149 feet, 11 inches.

Ridan Heads for Triple Crown Events

By GENE PLOWDEN

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — The best of what horsemen consider only an ordinary crop of 3-year-olds, their Florida campaign virtually completed, headed for Kentucky today and the derby May 7, the first of the Triple Crown events.

Mrs. Moody Jolley's Ridan, winner of Saturday's Florida Derby by a nose over Meadow Stable's fleet filly, Cicada, goes to Louisville. Half a dozen others will follow in the next three weeks.

Ridan, who earned $424,954 and has been out of the money only once in his 12 races, moved to the front among derby prospects.

Cicada came on again after Ridan caught her, and only the camera could separate them at the end. Time for the mile and an eighth was 1:50 2-5, against Gen. Duke's record of 1:46 4-5 in 1957. The mile and a quarter Kentucky Derby will be a far tougher assignment.

Admiral's Voyage, second to Royal Attack in the Santa Anita Derby and winner of the Louisiana Derby, was six lengths behind the first two. He also will go to Kentucky, as will Sharp Count, Black Beard, Boone Co., Good Fight and other also rans of Saturday.

Doctor Hank K., a surprising fourth, was not nominated for the Kentucky Derby but is eligible for the Preakness and Belmont Stakes, second and third events in the Triple Crown. Sharp Count and Boone Co. are nominated for the derby only.

Sunrise County and Prego, who ran one-two in the Flamingo Stakes in early March but finished in reverse order when Sunrise County was disqualified for running wide in the stretch, have gone to New York. Decidedly, second to Sir Gaylord in the Everglades, missed both the Flamingo and Florida Derby because of illness and may not be ready for the Louisville feature.

Braves' Spahn Absorbs a Big Pounding

By MIKE RATHET

What's wrong with wonderful Warren?

That question referring to Milwaukee's Warren Spahn pierced all baseball discussions today after the Braves' great left-hander absorbed another pounding, giving up 10 runs in six innings during a 16-6 loss to the Chicago Cubs at Mesa Sunday.

Spahn, who'll be 41 this month, has been one of the top pitchers in major league history with 309 victories in a career that started with the then Boston Braves in 1942.

In five outings this spring Spahn has been the loser four times—he wasn't involved in the other decision—and has been tagged for 28 runs in 28 innings. Against the Cubs the 12-time 20-game winner was belted for a two-run homer by Ernie Banks and had another pitch driven out of the park by Lou Brock.

Brock, however, failed to touch home plate in his tour around the bases. Milwaukee catcher Joe Torre spotted the mental flub, called for the ball, got Brock out and saved Spahn further embarrassment.

The 20 hits struck by the Cubs against the Braves failed to reach the top production effort of the exhibition season. That came at Lakeland Sunday as the Kansas City A's rapped 22 hits in a 12-5 victory over Detroit.

In other games, San Francisco defeated Boston 7-4 at Phoenix, Cleveland edged the Los Angeles Dodgers 6-5 at Las Vegas, St. Louis beat the New York Mets 7-4 in 10 innings at St. Petersburg and the Chicago White Sox beat Cincinnati 10-6 at Sarasota.

Against American Association minor league competition, the Los Angeles Angels nipped Dallas-Fort Worth 10-9 at Palm Springs, while Houston was belted by Oklahoma City 14-4 at Apache Junction.

Philadelphia - Minnesota, Pittsburgh-Washington and Baltimore-New York Yankees were rained out.

After Spahn departed, Ken Hubbs added another homer for the Cubs — a grand slam. Hank Aaron paced the Braves with a single, double and home run No. 7. Leading the A's were Bill Bryan with two homers, and Dick Howser, who stroked five consecutive hits. Rocky Colavito hit two out of the park for the Tigers.

Felipe Alou accounted for four RBI with two homers and Orlando Cepeda had a homer in his 3-for-3 performance as the Giants beat the Red Sox for the first time in four meetings. Bubba Phillips gave the Indians an early lead with a two-run homer but they needed a sacrifice fly by Doc Edwards in the ninth to subdue the Dodgers.

Ed Bouchee brought the Mets from behind to tie with a two-out homer in the last of the ninth, but the Cards won it in the 10th as pinch hitter Red Schoendienst knocked in the winner with a single. Floyd Robinson's two-run double and triples by Al Smith and Joe Cunningham were the big hits in the White Sox' win over the Reds.
